WRIT PETITION No.12096 OF 2005

O R D E R

(Per Sri Justice M.Venkateswara Reddy)

This is a taken up writ petition. The petitioner alleged in her telegram that due to the harassment by one Mr.Muttam Nageswara Rao, her son Relangi Adinarayana was missing and in that connection, she lodged a complaint before the Station House Officer, Alamuru Police Station and the Police, instead of taking action against the said Muttam Nageswara Rao and tracing her son, are calling her to the Police Station daily and abusing her.

The 1st respondent filed an affidavit before this Court stating that no complaint in fact was presented before the S.H.O. Alamuru Police Station and no such complaint has been received by the said Station till the morning of 18th June, 2005. It is further stated that on 18.06.2005 one Kum.Mutyam Varalaxmi, D/o.Nageswara Rao, R/o.Mulasthanam village, Alamuru Mandal, lodged a complaint before the 1st respondent alleging that the son of the petitioner promised to marry her and cheated her and the son of the petitioner was taken away from her by his parents and requested to take necessary action as per law. It is further stated that on the basis of the said complaint, a case in Crime No.65 of 2005 was registered for the offences punishable under Sections 417, 420, 493, 506 read with 34 IPC on 18.06.2005 at 7.00 A.M. and the said crime is under investigation.

Today, the learned Government Pleader for Home submitted that pursuant to surrender of Mr.Relangi Adinarayana he was remanded to judicial custody till 05.09.2005 by an order dated 23.08.2005 made by the Judicial Magistrate of First Class, Alamuru.

In the light of the averments made in the affidavit filed by 1st respondent stating that the alleged detenu is involved in Crime No. 65 of 2005 and the investigation is still in progress, and in view of the submission of the learned Government Pleader that the alleged detenu on his surrender was remanded to judicial custody, the writ petition is closed.
